Witold has negotiated with some Firm. The latter supplied S.R. with arms. Witold proposed that he may supply and us with some quantity.

Firm has made that dependent on agreement with his friends A. Two weeks after Finn has seen myself in London. It turned out that he wants to obtain arms for us from Japanese, and in his last report to the Colonel he demanded 4,000 pounds sterling for this purpose. He settled this demand without our knowledge and agreement. During visit at the Colonel with Finn, I have granted and this money to be serviceable not only for arms. However I cannot resolve upon this affair, because at present only you are vested with full power. At the request of Colonel I inform you about this affair.
