15. March, 05

Dear Sir,

I beg to acknowledge
you about what you
asked to Mr Inouye
at Flunburg, cyermany.
The other day. He told me that he will do as you wanted & therefore the number, of the articles will be prepared in half;
5,000 instead of 10,000.

yours & sincerely
K.

Dear Sir,

will you be kind
enough to translate to English this book as soon as possible. I am very much obliged of you, but it is very necessary for me, so I
sincerely wish your helping to do.

Dear Sir,

I have just returned from the continent and received your letter. If you would be able to come on Suterday, 6th, between 1 to 3 P.M. I shall be very pleased.

Yours sincerely,

PK.

P.C. If I do not hear from you the contrary I will wait you to come on that day.

May 4.1905.

Dear Sir,

A letter from Hamburg dated 2nd of this month has just reached me and Mr.Inouye says that the goods will be ready within fourteen days from that date.

Yours sincerely,

K.

May 19, 1905.

Dear Sir,

With regard to the goods a letter dated 17th of this month has reached me last night from Mr. Inouye at Hamburg. Despite his endeavours to deliver quickly, he has been very much surprised to hear from the agent that owing to some trouble, which unexpectedly occurred in the manufactory the delivery will be delayed, but he (the agent) expects to hand them over by the end of this month. "Therefore Mr. Inouye adds, he has blamed him for the breach of contract and is asking him to ^{fix} the day for the delivery."

Yours sincerely,

K.

May 20, 1905.

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for your kindness in sending the translation of the book to me, and I have found now something more to trouble you.

One of my friends sent me a newspaper in Russian, which I cannot read at all. There being an important article about military matters, I am anxious to read it. I am sending it to you, - the article runs from the end of page 1 to the beginning of page 2, on which I put marks, - hoping that you will have spare time to kindly translate it into English, for which I shall be very much obliged ^{to} you.

Yours sincerely,

K.

P.C. As this newspaper is to be send back to the friend, I hope you will kindly send back to me when the translation finished.

May 22, 1905.

Dear Sir,

Very many thanks for your kindness in sending the photos to us, which troubled you so much. All they are splendid works and so beautiful indeed. The people to whom we showed, all admire very much. We are going to send them to our families in Japan and we are sure they will also interest very much. I again thank you.

A letter has reached me just now from Mr. Inouye and he says that according to the information from the manufacturer, the goods are to be sent out of the manufactory on the 23rd of this month and therefore he thinks they will probably arrive at Hamburg by 25th of this month. He will wire to me, he adds, sooner he hands them over.

Yours sincerely,

K.

P.S. Mr. I, my friend asks me to send his best thanks to you.

Dear my friend

I enclose herewith
the answer from Mr.
Inouye to my telegram
of yesterday and I
will not fail to
transmit at once his
further telegram to
you

Dear Sir

after having investigated
I have found out some books of South African war.

There are two which
are considered best.

1. "Times" history of the
war. 5 volumes
3 published

2) "The great Boer
war" by Conan
Doyle 550 pages.

I think the latter is
best to see general
account.

Dear Sir -
very much thanks for your kindness of sending me very nice coat of your country -
It is very kind of you to think of me. It shall be kept for ever as your good souvenir.
Good bye my friend, good success & luck for you and all your country. I shall be longing to hear from Europe
your great success before long.

P.S. My colleague, I, thanks you for very kind presents.
I am starting here to-morrow.

17. 10. 05.

Dear Sir,

I have just returned here from the country and found your letter. I suppose you have been pre-occupied lately for your preparation to go to the front.

I sincerely wish to see you before your departure and if you are not engaged to-morrow

please come here at about 1 o'clock. I hope to take some
drink with you for
your great success.

Yours sincerely
