To Whom It May Concern,

Miss Hanna Ablamowicz has been employed at the Office of the New York Branch of the Polish Military Mission in Washington from January 1, 1945 to July 1, 1945.

In her capacity as a secretary she performed her duties conscientiously and deserves full confidence as a skilled office worker. She may be highly recommended for similar position.

She is leaving the above mentioned office due to the liquidation of it in consequence of the end of the war.
