To Whom It May Concern,

Mr. Stanislaw glawik has been employed at the Office of the New York Branch of the Polish Military Mission in Washington from August 1941 to July 1, 1945

As a treasurer and office manager he may be highly recommended. His work was very satisfactory and his personal and professional qualifications are high.

He is leaving the above mentioned office due to the liquidation of it in consequence of the end of the war.
