NAZI NOTE— When the German-American Bund was originally set up the Foreign Institute at Stuttgart, Germany, for organizational purposes, divided the United States into three departments as indicated on this map. Subsequently, with the Hitler-Stalin trial marriage, a few changes were made to facilitate Nazi-Communist cooperation. Half of Pennsylvania, as an example, was placed in the “Department of the Middle West” to conform with Communist division of the state. Wyoming was moved into the “Department of the West” to become a part of Communist District No. 30. Now, that Nazi-Communist cooperation is at an end, indications are that original Nazi boundaries will prevail.

COMMUNIST SUB-DIVISIONS

The Communist organization is sub-divided into cells or fractions, shop nuclei, street nuclei, international (foreign language) branches, sub-sections, sections, city (local) units, sub-districts and districts. Reproduced below is an original Communist map of New York City showing section and sub-section boundaries.

NO PRACTICAL MAP could be made that would individually indicate all of the centrally concentrated and extensively far-flung units of the Communist, Fascist and Nazi network. This map, therefore, is able to list but a small fraction of the grand total. While it indicates the more important and more active centers of subversion a more realistic picture may be envisioned by the realization that the poisonous tentacles of the Red, Brown and Black Fifth Column reach into almost every city, town and hamlet in the United States. As this is being written it was discovered that a Communist cell was hard at work among the borax workers in the heart of the desert—in Death Valley.

NEW YORK CITY, although but a pin point on the map, has within its boundaries 72 Communist Schools and 1187 Communist Party units, with 44 headquarters listed in the telephone book. In the metropolitan New York district, embracing parts of New Jersey, Long Island and Connecticut, there are 90 Communist Schools, 57 Communist camps, 31 Nazi units, 26 Nazi camps, and 43 Fascist centers.

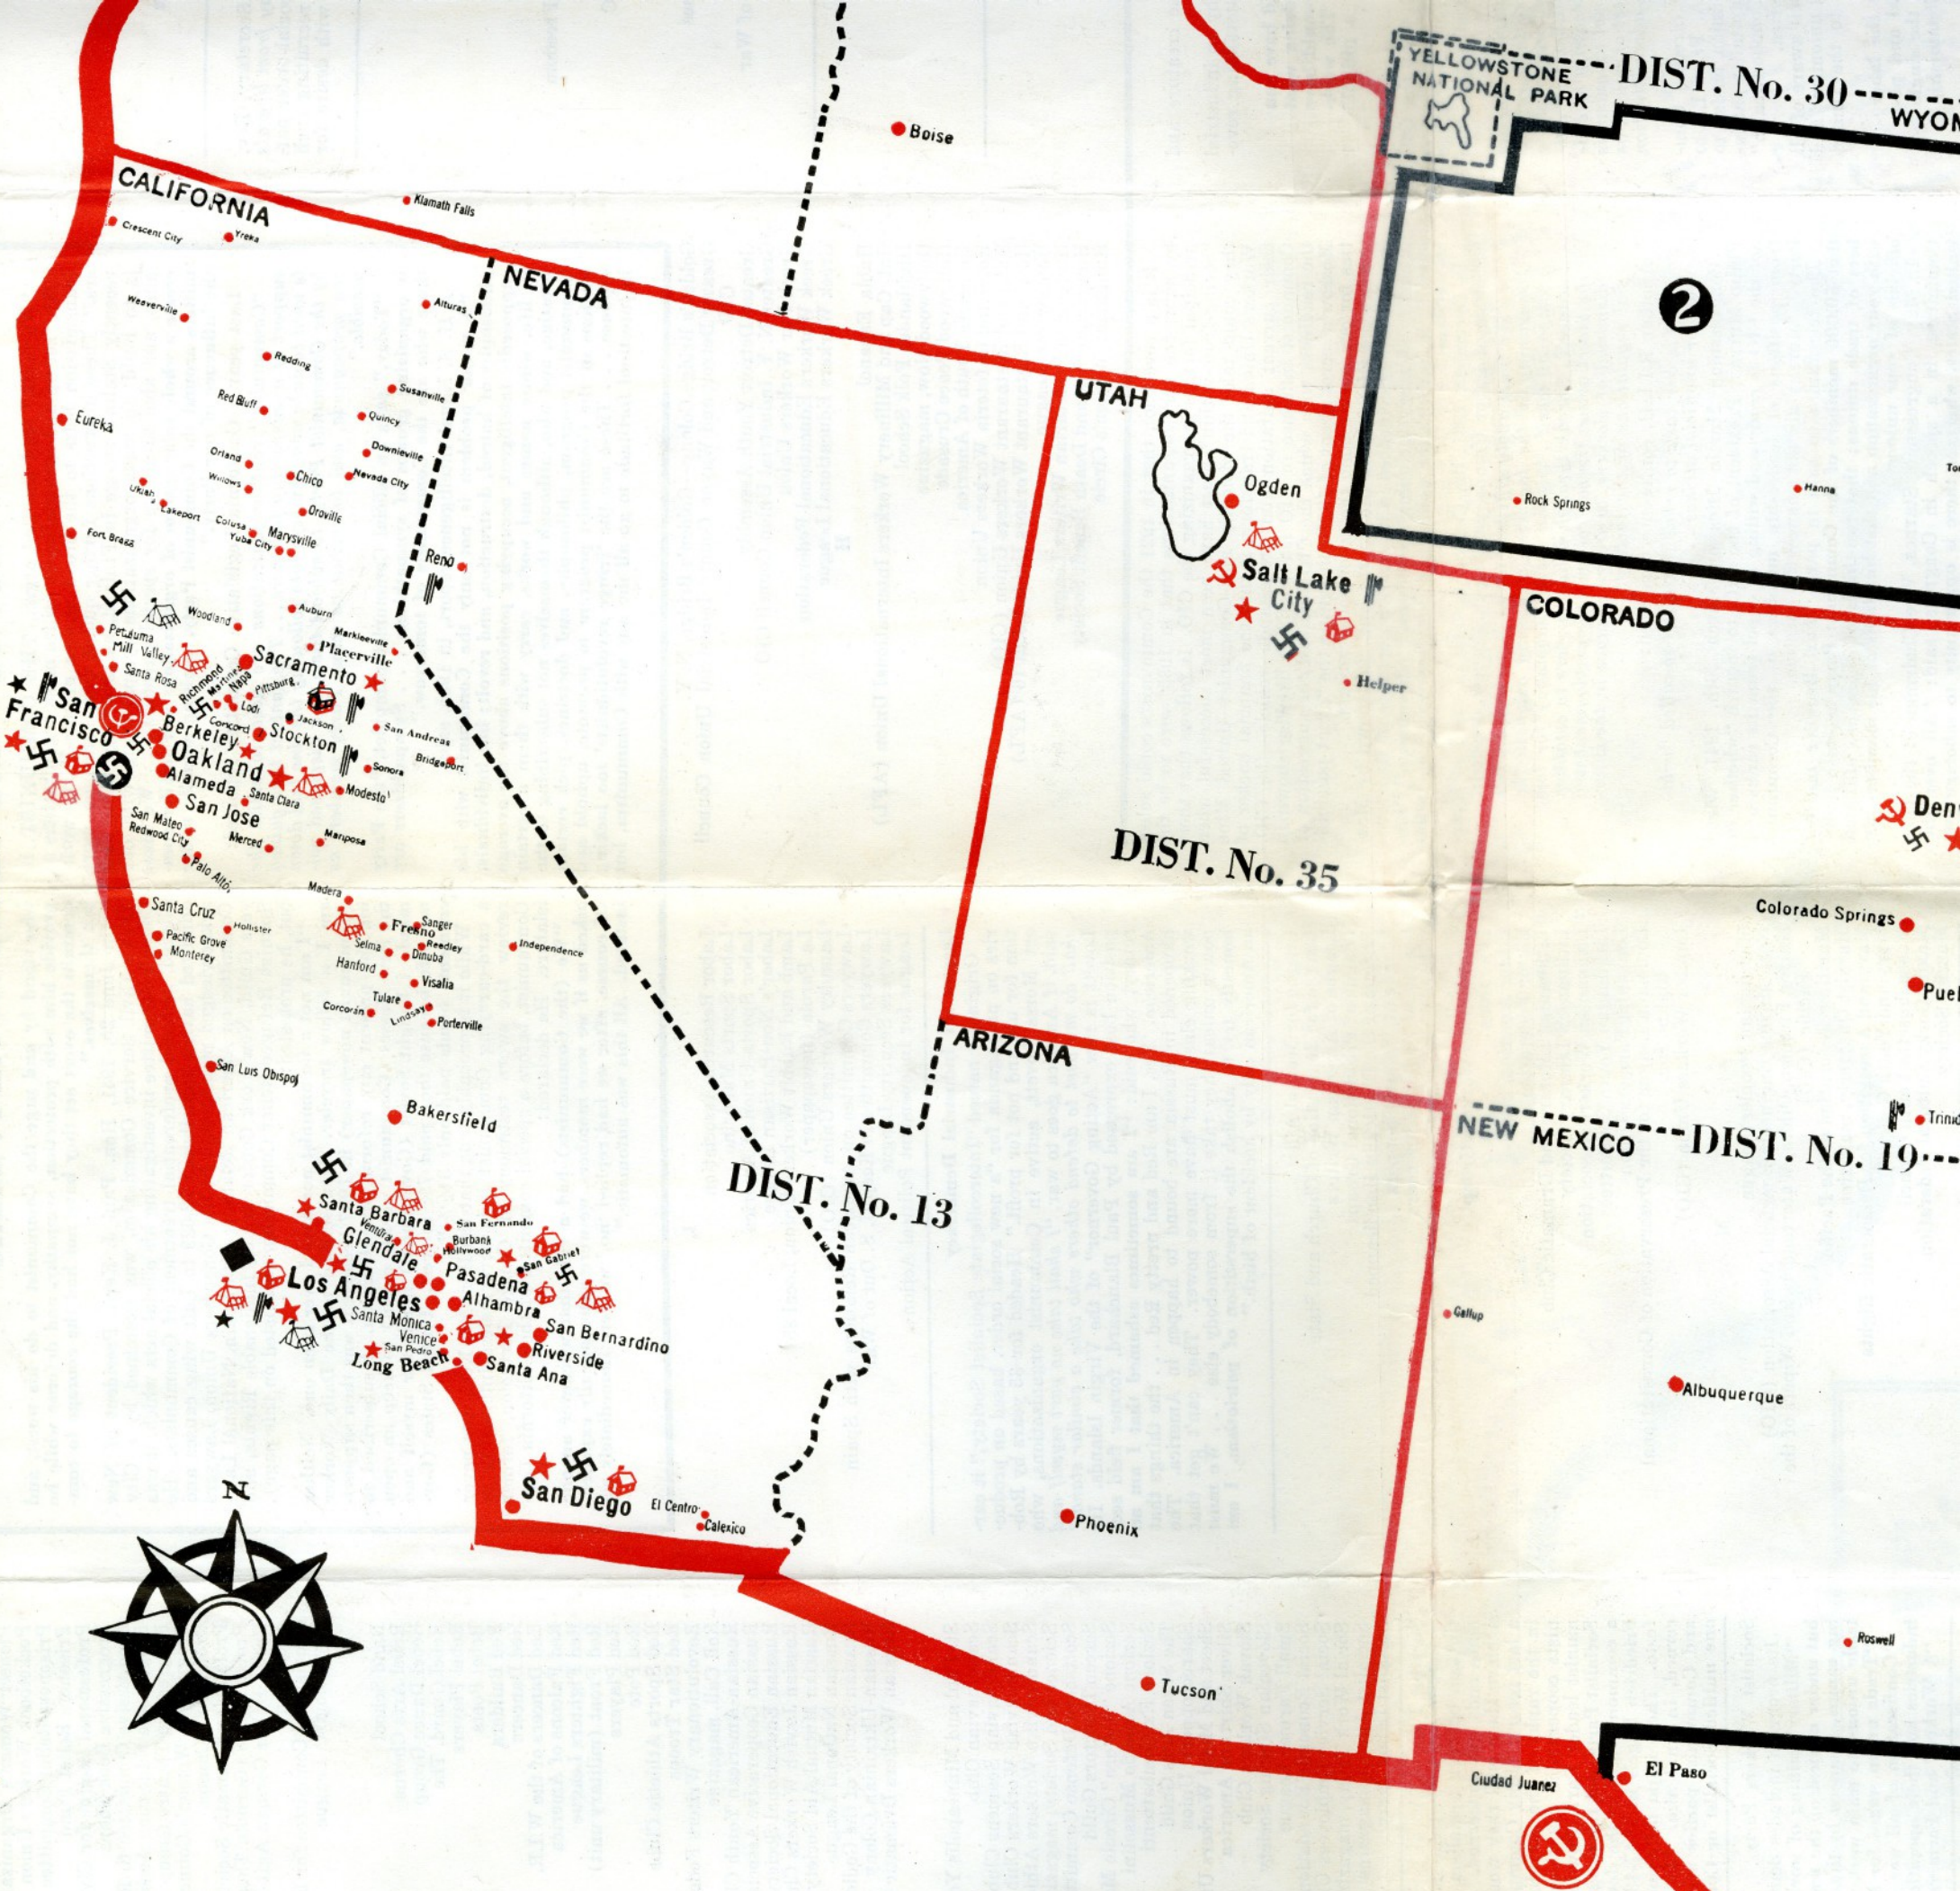

ANTI-DEFENSE CONCENTRATIONS are plainly evident. A major portion of all Communist activities is confined to four states—New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and California—where fully 90 per cent of the Nazi Bund's membership and activities are also centered. The significance of this situation is evidenced in the fact that of the Seven Billion Dollars appropriated by Congress for National Defense, $5,135,024,027 in contracts went to these same four states, while all other states combined received contracts totaling $1,864,975,973.

IN DEFENSE INDUSTRIES

Regardless of what the fortunes of war bring to Soviet Russia and in spite of any moral or material support the United States may give to the Kremlin, Moscow's Fifth Column comrades will continue to entrench themselves in American industry. Slowing the production of war supplies for Britain or speeding military aid to the workers' fatherland are but temporary expedients. Of prime importance always is the major goal—"to convert the imperialist war into civil war."

"Every factory must become a fortress of Communism," decreed the Executive Committee of the Communist Internationale. And it declared: "Strikes are mere dress rehearsals for the revolution."

"When Communists urge strikes and crippling of industry in time of war we are accused of trying to bring about the defeat of our own government. To that charge we plead guilty. That is precisely our aim. A government engaged in warfare is weaker

IN THE ARMY, NAVY and NATIONAL GUARD

In December, 1921, Gregory Zinoviev, Chairman of the Third (Communist) Internationale, signed a secret document which called for "increased and intense work . . . in the ranks of the capitalistic armies."

"Red sections," he promised, "would decompose the armies of old and turn their bayonets against the capitalistic class." The work in the armed forces, he wrote "must be placed at the head of all the future work of the Communist Internationale and all its strength and means must be devoted to it."

"Principal attention must be devoted to the personnel of the Navy, where the soil is particularly fertile for active Communist propaganda and work," the document said.

These secret instructions were brought from Moscow to the United States early in 1922 by Dr. Leo Reichel of the Central Bureau, Society for Technical Aid for Soviet Russia. Before the year was out, Secretary of War John W. Weeks found it necessary to issue a public statement: "The War Department has been aware that the Communist program has stressed the breeding of disloyalty among the army and navy personnel." Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Navy, in an order to Navy personnel, said: "I appeal to the officers and men of the service to be ever alert in guarding themselves ashore and afloat from the preaching of Sovietism, Communism and anarchy."

On Armistice Day, 1934, a Communist newspaper declared:

"The main task of revolutionary workers is to fraternize with the enlisted sailors in the United States fleet. To the Communist Party and Young Communist League falls the duty of carrying on consistent political education among the enlisted sailors and marines. With a firm base in the 'vital points in the war machine' we will thus be preparing even now to turn the coming imperialist war into a civil war for the overthrow of capitalist rule."

The Red drive met with some success because in May, 1939, high Naval officers testified in secret before a Congressional Committee that Communist propaganda had influenced the "loyalty, morality and discipline" of enlisted men and disclosed that "a number" had been discharged because of membership in groups considered "at odds with the purposes of national defense."

A member of the Soviet secret police, the OGPU, in a report prepared in 1936 listed the "organized and controlled cells" in Naval bases on both Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Bremerton, Wash., with 400 members and Brooklyn, N. Y., with a 300 member unit were the largest cells named. At the Panama Canal the Cristobal base had a cell of 26, while Coco Solo's Communist contingent numbered 60. Among others, a cell of 70 Sovieters was listed as being active at Mare Island.

On July 1, 1941 Rear Admiral John W. Greenslade announced that 28 workers at the Mare Island Navy Yard were being discharged for "subversive activity and associations," while on this same day 10 employees of the Brooklyn Navy Yard were fired "in the interest of national defense."

The Army's first open experience with Communism came in 1925 when Walter Trumbull and Paul Crouch, enlisted men, were arrested for having organized Red cells "in practically every regiment" in Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. They were sentenced to imprisonment for 20 and 29 years, but were released in short order for "good behavior." On his release Trumbull made a nation-wide speaking tour under Communist sponsorship, being hailed by Robert Minor, present head of the Communist Party, as "Commandant Trumbull, Red Chief of the American Soviet Republic Army and Navy." Paul Crouch, who had been propaganda director in Hawaii, was honored by Moscow with the title "Professor of Military Sciences and Tactics for the Communist Party of the World, U. S. Branch."

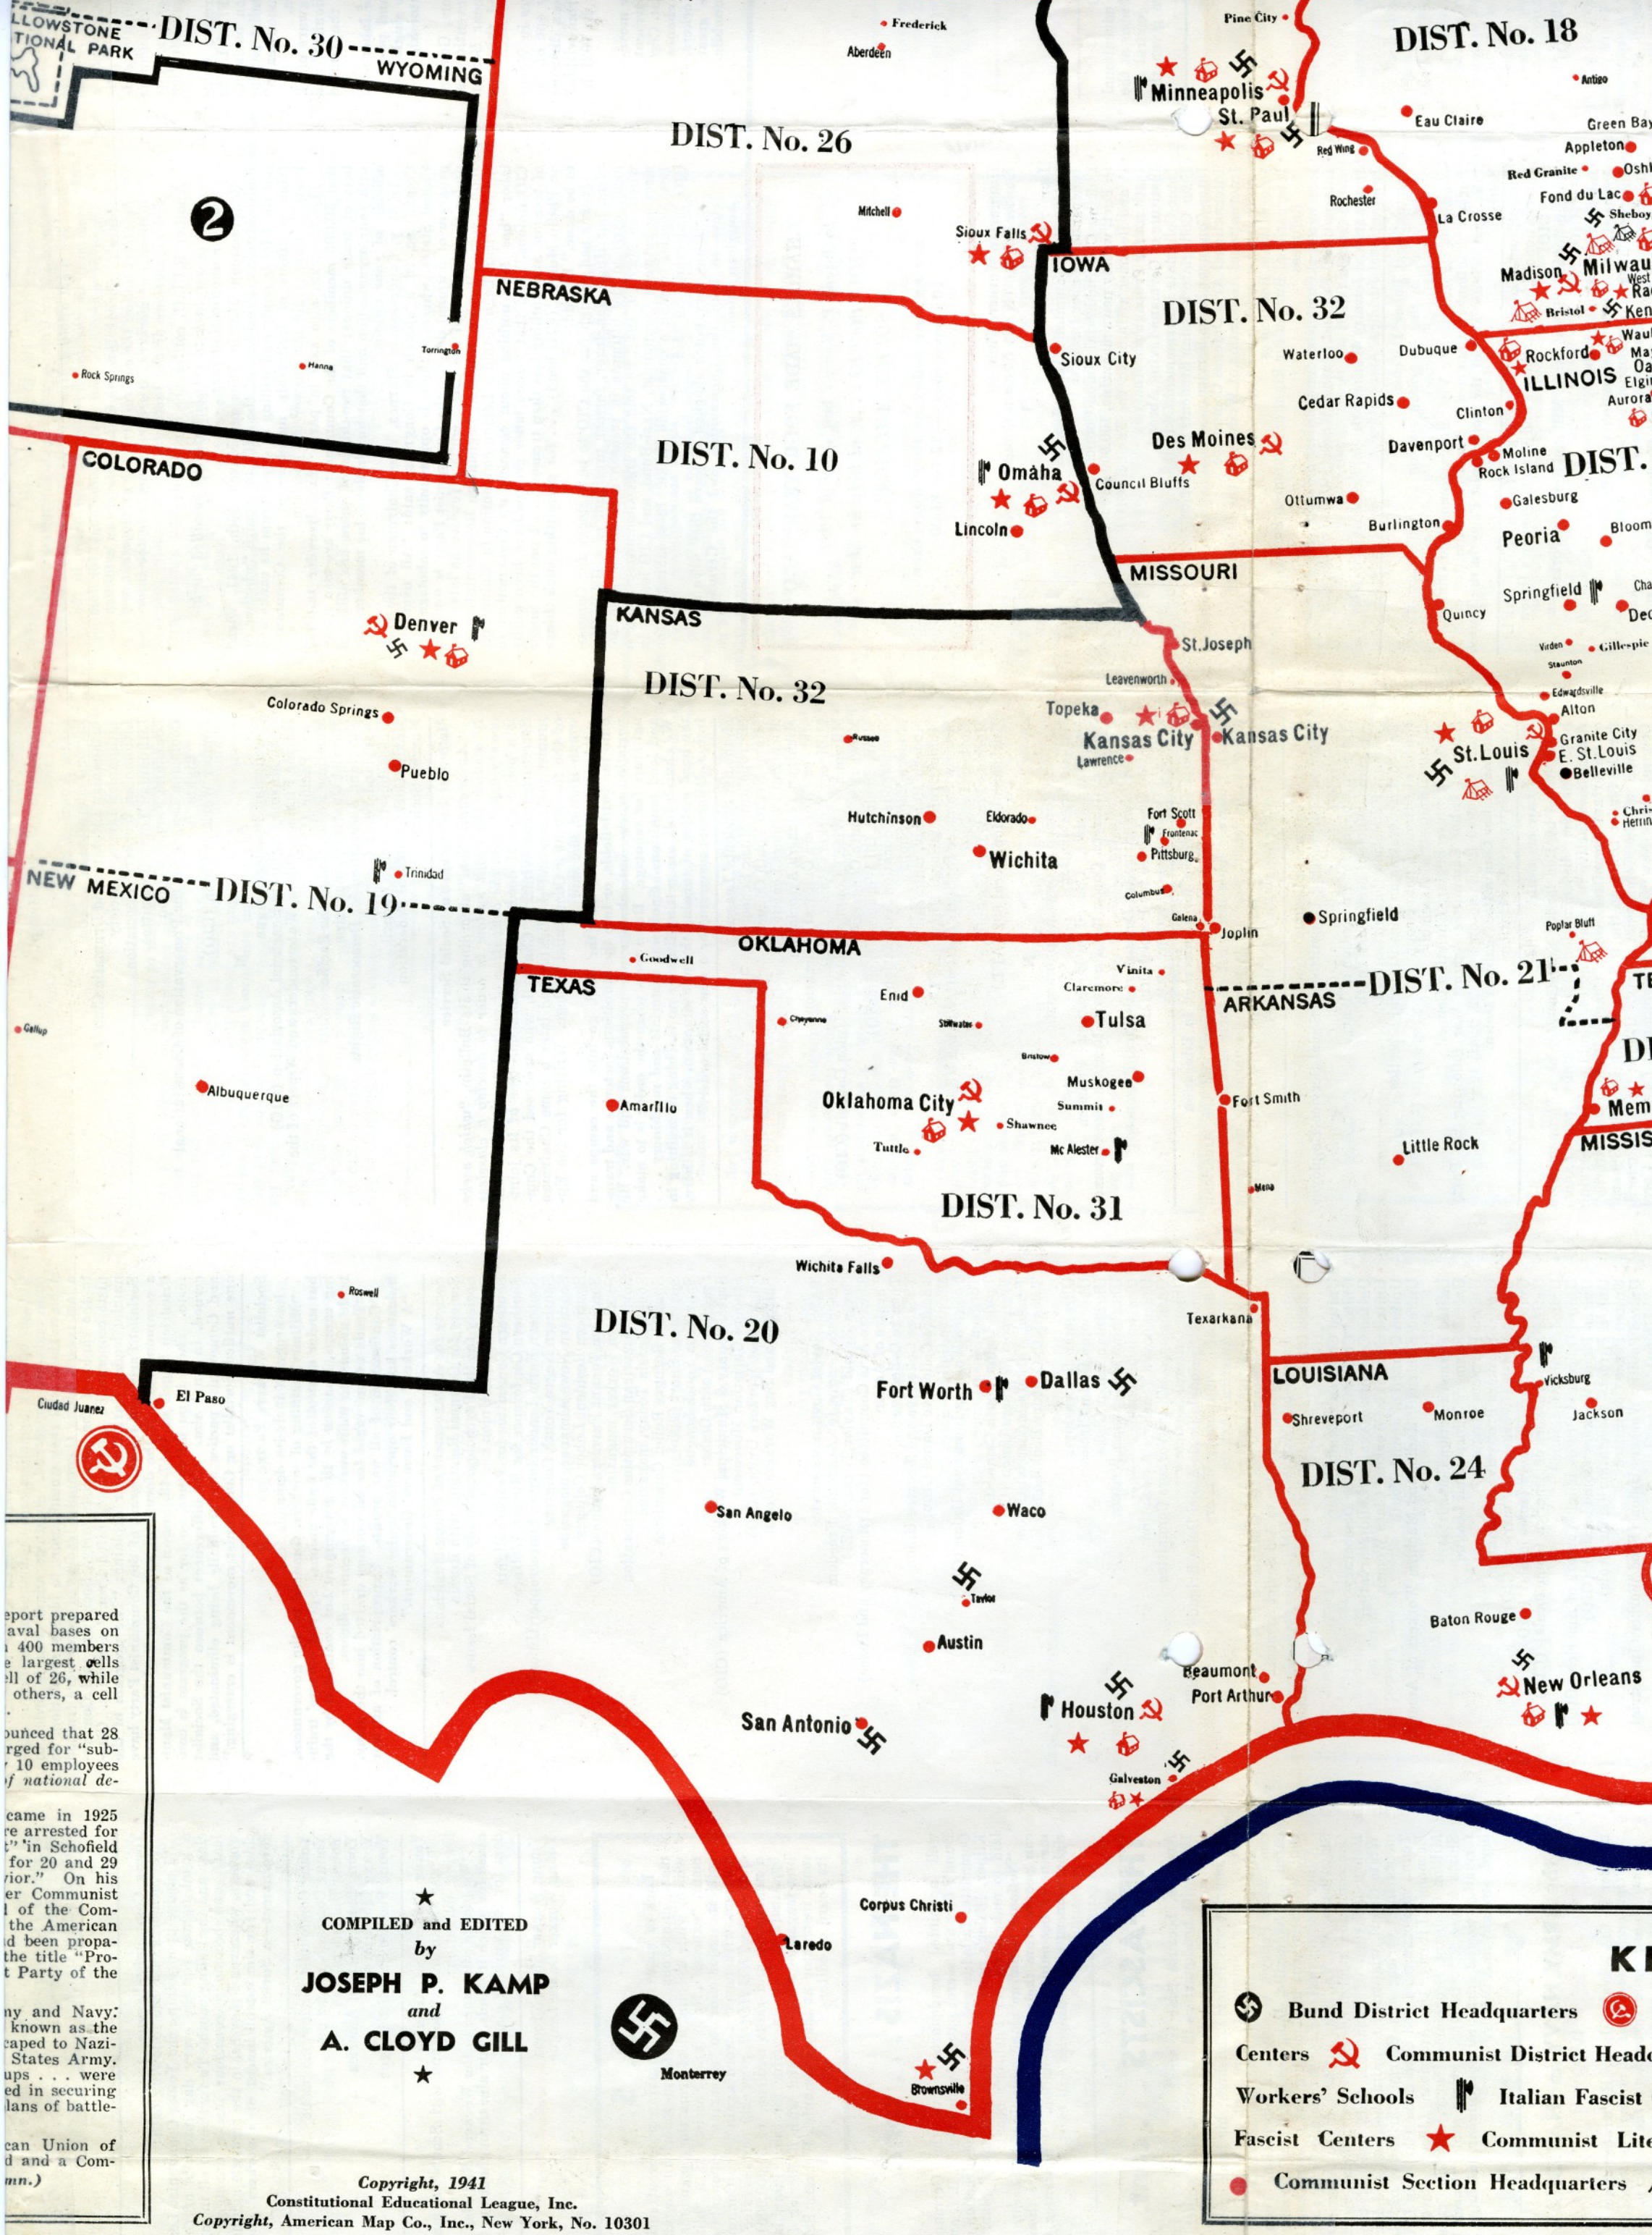

The Nazis and Fascists have also penetrated the Army and Navy: Dr. Ignatz T. Griebel, head of the Nazi Bund when it was known as the Friends of New Germany, and leader of a spy ring who escaped to Nazi-land to avoid arrest, was a Reserve Officer in the United States Army. The Dies Committee reports: "Members of the Nazi groups . . . were found working in Navy shipyards where they had succeeded in securing positions which placed them in direct possession of secret plans of battle-ships of the latest type."

Blackshirt leader Paul Castorina, head of the American Union of Fascists, was a member of the New York National Guard and a Com-

IN DEFENSE INDUSTRIES

Regardless of what the fortunes of war bring to Soviet Russia and in spite of any moral or material support the United States may give to the Kremlin, Moscow's Fifth Column comrades will continue to entrench themselves in American industry. Slowing the production of war supplies for Britain or speeding military aid to the workers' fatherland are but temporary expedients. Of prime importance always is the major goal—"to convert the imperialist war into civil war."

"Every factory must become a fortress of Communism," decreed the Executive Committee of the Communist Internationale. And it declared: "Strikes are mere dress rehearsals for the revolution."

"When Communists urge strikes and crippling of industry in time of war we are accused of trying to bring about the defeat of our own government. To that charge we plead guilty. That is precisely our aim. A government engaged in warfare is weaker than at other times. At such a moment an organized drive may result in such difficulties that the imperialist forces may be defeated," says "The Communist," official monthly organ of the American Communist Party.

From Moscow came these orders: "Chief among the industries in which we must concentrate are the chemical industries, navy yards, airplane plants, shipbuilding plants, munitions factories, etc. The Party must pay greater attention to the building of nuclei on the railroads, in power houses, in telegraph, in the post offices, etc. The Party on the Pacific coast must strengthen its organization among the marine workers. Districts like Connecticut must concentrate on large plants like the Remington Arms, Winchester Arms, etc. Districts like Pittsburgh and Cleveland must concentrate their work among steel workers and miners. The Detroit district, where there is the manufacture of automobiles, and tractors (tanks) and airplanes, must build nuclei in these plants. The Communists should carry on continuous agitation preparatory to the sabotage of production and shipment of war materials . . . Work for the general strike as a transition to the armed uprising."

"When war comes," directs a manual for American Communists, "workers in ammunition plants, go on strike! Shut down your plants! Railroad men, refuse to handle war materials or to transport troops! Marine workers, do not load either men or ammunition! Truck drivers, refuse to assist in war work! . . . If the workers rise in this way against war, the capitalists with their armed forces will try to break the deadlock. The workers will have to offer resistance. We Communists do not close our eyes to the fact that this means civil war. Victory in the civil war spells the doom of the capitalist state."

"Like the workers in the Soviet Union," another Red document declares, "the American workers will seize the industries and government and establish a Workers government."

The Nazi Bund also has a very keen interest in American industry.

"Bund members were employed in defense factories . . . We planned on paralyzing the Pacific Coast from Seattle to San Diego." "By sabotage?" "Yes—which included blowing up the Hercules Powder Plant, where they make munitions, and also blowing up all of the docks and warehouses along the waterfront." So testified a former Bund official before the Dies Committee.

"Is there any significance that most of the Bund's units are in the New York, New England and Pennsylvania area where 90% of this country's munitions industry is located?" Congressman Starnes asked Bund's fuhrer Fritz Kuhn at a later hearing. "Of course not," said Kuhn. "There is no significance that most of your posts are located near navy yards, aircraft factories or other industries?" Starnes persisted. "I know nothing about industries," Kuhn retorted, despite the fact that his predecessor, Dr. Ignatz Griebel, was the head of a spy ring which, among other things, stole blue prints of a U. S. Navy scout bomber eight months before the plane was delivered to the Navy itself.

In discussing this spy ring which was centered in the Nazi Bund's leadership Senator Key Pittman, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, declared: "Their value lies in being in a position to promote and engineer sabotage to cripple vital industries in time of war."

THE NAZIS

Hitler's Nazis are Brown Bolsheviks.

And he has a horde of spies, saboteurs, Gestapo agents, brown-shirted storm troopers and German army reservists and veterans in America who constitute as dangerous a Fifth Column as any which contributed to the downfall of Europe's conquered countries.

His consuls and their recently over-busy staffs may be on their way back to the Fatherland; his German Library of Information may be closed; his Trans-Ocean News Service may be suspended; his Fellowship Forum may have gone out of business, and a handful of his spies may have been caught, but his cleverly hidden "Einheitsfront" is still intact and the German-American Bund continues to flourish, as it makes careful plans to go under-ground.

In 1937, Dr. Hans Borchers, Reich Consul General at New York, revealed in confidence that 312,000 veterans of the German Army residing in the United States (and many enrolled in the Kyffhauserbund) were to receive a special "Hitler Iron Cross," some of which he presented in person. The significance of this disclosure is evident in the boast of Gen. Karl Haushofer, author of Hitler's plan of world conquest, who wrote:

"A strong determined army under dynamic National Socialist command can be recruited overnight in the United States. The job of taking over North America will be comparatively simple."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, in 1937, after an 18-month inquiry, placed the German-American Bund membership at 6,500. In 1939, according to its first fuhrer Fritz Kuhn (now in prison) who told a Dies investigator that he had "a certain special arrangement with Hitler," it comprised local units, a membership of 20,000 and 100,000 "sympathizers." Subsequent investigation by the Dies Committee places its current enrollment at 100,000 members.

Its published aims and purposes "solemnly resolved: above all to honor and defend the Constitution, Flag and Institutions of these United States of America and to cultivate the lofty ideals of the founders of the Nation," but confidential "Pamphlet No. 7" directed that Bund members "cooperate secretly with all persons or groups who criticize the American system."

While its openly stated purpose was "to earnestly strive to further a true respect, understanding and friendship between racially dissimilar groups," the manual of the Bund's Storm Troopers declared:

"We want men who would exterminate with all their power the stinking poison of Red Jewish infection in America."

In its duplicity the Bund was merely carrying out the policy of Hitler, who said: "I make use of all means that seem to me to be of service, without the slightest concern for the proprieties or for codes of honor."

"There is nothing American about the organization," a Bund official testified under oath, "it is purely an arm of the German government."

A year ago at Del Rio, Texas, angry citizens escorted three professed Nazi agents, who were distributing literature, to the city limits and told them not to return. One of the Nazis warned the crowd:

"If we have to go, there will be hundreds to take our place. They will flow from all corners. They are in every county in Texas, every state in the Union, and every country in the world."

Today, just across the Texas border at Monterrey, Mexico, the Nazis have set up shop. Here, in a modern

THE FASCISTS

Fascists in America, unlike the Communists and Nazis, are not primarily concerned with the task of imposing their philosophy of government on this country, but in securing aid, among their compatriots here, in advancing the cause of their respective peoples abroad.

But the organized Italian Fascists, Ukrainian Fascists and White Russian Fascists are a real menace, nevertheless, because of the active support and co-operation they give the Nazi Bund.

These groups are carrying on extensive propaganda among their own nationals. Such activity is detrimental to American institutions. Fortunately, however, every effort of foreign-inspired fascists and bundists to influence American opinion has been so stupid, clumsy and inept that it has added up to a total loss.

Commander Salvatore Caridi, of the Italian World War Veterans, for example, got a Nazi cheer, but made no friends among our people, when he addressed a Bund mass meeting and advocated a "punch in the nose" for those Americans who disagree with Mussolini or Hitler.

Each of the fascist segments has its organized shirted legions. While the Ukrainians have maintained an Air Corps in Chicago, for a number of years, the Italian movement is by far the more important. It has an enrollment of about 10,000 "Squadristi" in a military unit, with some 100,000 Americans of Italian descent willing to be seen at public manifestations of the 200 and odd organizations it comprises.

There are more than 100 periodicals, weekly papers, magazines and bulletins disseminating Fascist propaganda, and under the guise of education, schools for children and a youth movement have been organized under Fascist patronage.

These activities have been carried on largely under the direction of Edmondo Rösconi, Under Secretary to Mussolini, who spent many years in this country as an I.W.W. agitator.

Italian consular officials have played a leading role in Italo-American circles in attempting to build goodwill for Italy and Fascism. Now, they have been sent home, but the agents of the OVRA, the Italian Gestapo, or Secret Service, are still here and, here too, are the Italian War Veterans, who were organized into "military clubs" just a year ago. Geoffredo Panteleoni, for 10 years head of the official Italian Information Office in this country, discloses that there are 700 ex-officers and 30,000 former non-commissioned officers of the Italian armed forces in New York City alone.

As an indication of how the Fascist movement is financed, Paul Castorina, leader of the American Union of Fascists, received funds from both the Italian and German Governments, the Rumanian Fascists, the British Imperial Fascist Party, Sir Oswald Mosley, Fritz Kuhn, of the Nazi Bund, and William Dudley Pelley.

NATIVE FASCIST GROUPS, due to exposure, have had hard sledding in recent months. Some have deteriorated almost to the vanishing point. While the Communists and their stooges have tried to pin the "Fascist" label on all who oppose them, the truth is that there are but a handful of native groups and individuals who would substitute an American Fascist dictatorship for our Constitutional Republic.

Among these groups are the Silver Shirts, headed by William Dudley Pelley who wants to replace our government with what he calls "The Christ Democracy" and who told a Bund meeting in San Francisco that he was proud he had been called the Adolf Hitler of

DO YOUR PART IN NATIONAL DEFENSE

The success of our country's defense effort requires more than uniformed soldiers and sailors and a supply of rifles, tanks, ships and airplanes. America's most important defense forces wear no uniforms and use no lethal weapons. Without the proper kind of support from hard-working patriots in the defense industries America's military and naval forces would be helpless. Without the maintenance of a healthy morale—without confidence in ultimate success, our defense program would fail. Finally, without an abiding faith in our Country and its institutions, any endeavor to defend and preserve it is doomed, and faces speedy collapse. Therefore, it is up to YOU, whoever you are, individually, to do your part in unmasking Hitler's henchmen and Mussolini's mischief-makers in their attempts to sabotage defense production and undermine morale. It is essential, too, that YOU help to expose and counteract the anti-American propaganda of Stalin's stooges. BUT—

THE COMMUNISTS

The heart and brain of the Red Fifth Column in America is the Communist Party, which the Dies Committee has found to be "a foreign conspiracy masked as a political party."

Its 100,000 members are "the General Staff of the proletariat," according to a Soviet secret agent who advises American Communist leaders. In truth they are the Generals, the Colonels and the Captains—the leaders, the organizers and the agitators of a gigantic movement whose intrigues stagger the imagination and whose power and influence has made itself felt in almost every phase of our national life.

The Communist Party is merely the nucleus—around it has been built a Red agitation and propaganda machine, which comprises some 800 affiliated, controlled or dominated organizations, enterprises and "Fronts," most of them national in scope with hundreds and thousands of local branches. Its newest "front," the American Peace Mobilization, not quite a year old, boasts a membership of 15,000,000.

It owns or controls some 600 daily, weekly and monthly magazines and newspapers, together with two major press services, maintains publishing houses, a national chain of retail book stores and a wholesale book handling organization. At the Ninth Convention Earl Browder, General Secretary of the Party now in a Federal prison, reported that "circulation of books and pamphlets in 1935 reached almost two and a half million copies." In 1938 the Dies Committee heard sworn testimony that Red literature had reached a yearly circulation of 25,000,000 copies, and based upon subsequent investigation reported, in 1941, that the Communist Party "puts out hundreds of tons of printed propaganda annually."

The Party owns and conducts more than 300 schools from coast to coast and some 1500 "Workers Centers." It also maintains a network of camps and pleasure resorts extending into every part of the country. It owns movie houses, controls several picture-producing concerns, and runs a film importing agency. It has its own insurance company and operates co-operative houses and restaurants, to mention just a few of its multiplicity of interests.

In connection with these activities Congressman Dies estimates that the Communists are spending $25,000,000 each year. Dr. D. H. Dubrowsky, former head of the Soviet Red Cross, who has been collecting funds here for almost 20 years "for Soviet relief," testified under oath that the American people were contributing between 25 and 30 Million Dollars annually and that most of the money was being used to finance espionage and propaganda in the United States.

The Communist Party's "tactics, maneuvers, and intrigues are both boldly open and patiently subtle, both violent and insidious," says a Dies report. It boldly preaches the class war while proclaiming "Communism is twentieth century Americanism" and hailing Browder, Jefferson, Washington, Paine, Jackson, Lincoln and William Z. Foster as its heroes.

It solemnly swears by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, but Foster, its leader, writes:

"The Communist is unscrupulous in his choice of weapons. He allows no consideration of legality, religion, patriotism, honor, duty, etc., to stand in the way of his adoption of effective tactics." And the Communist oath declares: "I pledge myself to remain at all times a vigilant and firm defender of the Leninist line of the Party, the only line that insures the triumph of Soviet Power in the United States."

"When we sing the Star-Spangled Banner and the Internationale together," says the Communist daily newspaper, "when we decorate our platform with the American flag and the red flag of the Socialist revolution . . . we express the fusion of Communist program for socialism and American tradition."

In summarizing its findings on the Communist Party, the Dies Committee reports in part:

"It is under direct control of the Third International which has its headquarters in Moscow.

"It seeks ultimately the overthrow of the American form of government as established by the Constitution of the United States.

"It aims at the complete confiscation of private property in the means of production, including the socialization of the land.

"It hides behind civil liberties in pursuing ends which will destroy civil liberties for all but the ruling few of the proletarian dictatorship.

"It is energetically applying the Trojan Horse tactic of penetrating other organizations for the purpose of seeking to control them or, failing that, to destroy them.

"It is unusually active in our schools, both openly and subtly insinuating its propaganda into the minds of students.

"It is boring from within the two major political parties.

"It is the enemy of all forms of religion and looks upon faith in God as an outworn superstition.

"It is boring from within labor unions on a wide scale, seeking to dominate or wreck the unions for purposes that are alien to the interests of organized wage earners.

"It deliberately provokes violence in labor disputes for the purpose of training a revolutionary group in the tactics of civil war.

"It seeks to sabotage and cripple our economy on every possible front, with a view to its profiting by the resulting economic crises.

"It aligns itself with every crack-pot scheme to undermine our system of free enterprise and private initiative.

"It has penetrated the Government itself, with the result that some Communists hold key positions in Federal agencies and projects.

"It aims to incite race war by its special agitation among the Negro population of this country.

"It fears to have the spotlight of publicity turned upon its real aims and methods, and will stop at nothing to discredit, if possible, those who fearlessly expose its program and activities.

"It dangles the promise of economic security before the victims of economic distress, offering them a new slavery in the name of emancipation.

"It systematically and deliberately deceives many of our people by the use of high-sounding names for organizations which profess laudable objectives, but which, underneath, are designed solely to advance the cause of communism.

"It exercises extensive influence among several millions in this country through the device known as the united front.

"It persuades thousands of careless or innocent Americans to lend their names for the propaganda purposes of the Communist Party.

"It employs numerous "fellow travelers" who outnumber its card-holding membership, and by the use of these "fellow travelers" extends its influence into organizations and institutions of every description.

"Finally, it is diametrically opposed to the principles of Americanism, as set forth in the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence."

"Today," boasts the "Party Organizer," an organ for Communist functionaries, "there is not a town, not a village in the United States where workers and farmers do not know about the Communist Party, do not speak about our Party."

In the Roll of Dishonor, listed below, will be found the more important Communist, Nazi, Fascist and native totalitarian groups, organizations, publications and institutions, together with affiliated, controlled or dominated "united front," "fellow-traveler," and "transmission belt" aggregations. Although promoting programs which sometimes appear to clash, and employing different means and methods, their collective goal is identical—they would undermine our Government, destroy it, and set up in its place a new system of society based upon the collective concepts of Karl Marx. A Massachusetts Legislative Committee, after an inquiry into subversive activities reported "the propaganda of this organization is dictated and dominated by Communists and Communist supporters."

In 1940 it secured much publicity over an alleged purging of its directorate of Communists, but only "shouting" Communists were eliminated. The CIO is a revolutionary movement—the creature and industrial arm of the Communist Party.

Its aims and purposes were best expressed by an industrial union agitator of a decade ago, America's outstanding revolutionist Eugene V. Debs, when he said:

"The old unionism (A. F. of L.) would have you contented. We, industrial workers, are doing what we can to increase your discontent. We would have you rise in revolt against wage slavery. The workman who is contented today is truly a pitiable object."

That is the philosophy of the CIO.

Contrary to the generally accepted opinion that the CIO had its inception in a wrangle within the A. F. of L. in 1935

"FRONTS" and FELLOW-TRAVELERS

"We must," said the Red organ, THE COMMUNIST, in 1931, "set up and systematically utilize mass organizations as transmission belts to the broad masses of non-Party workers." These instructions further quoted Otto Kuusinen, more recently Stalin's stooge in Finland, as directing: "Our task is to build up mass organizations sympathizing with our aims, and able to aid us for special purposes . . . We must create a whole solar system of organizations and smaller committees around the Communist Party, working actually under the influence of our Party."

Last year a California Legislative Committee reported:

"Communist 'front' organizations are used to enlist the support of unsuspecting followers . . . The contact thus gained is used to dupe non-members into following the line laid down by the Communist Party, to subject them to a disguised poison propaganda, and to recruit as many Party members as possible."

"Today," says an official Communist pamphlet, "the Party is organizing groups of sympathizers . . . Sympathizers are those who are the Communists of tomorrow."

A U. S. Naval Intelligence report, in 1935, said:

"A major problem is not only the Communist with his philosophy of hatred, destruction, and revolt; but individuals, supposedly intelligent, occupying positions above the average in life, whose names and works, carry with them a certain prestige, and who, although themselves not subscribing to the Communist program, philosophy, and doctrines, pick certain sections of the Communist program to promote, uphold and espouse . . . These are the 'fringe revolutionists' too lacking in intestinal fortitude to go all the way with Communism, but

It is a revelation that in 1921 the Communists could select by name the very organizations that in 1935 were to be the principal factors in organizing the CIO. It follows that their "boring-from-within" must have been most successful when they could take the violently anti-Communist United Mine Workers Union and transform it into the financial backer of their current agitation and propaganda vehicle—the CIO. Communist influence in CIO leadership is likewise shown in the readiness with which the CIO followed the suggestion of Moscow's secret agent of 1921 concerning the "great possibilities for our work among the automobile workers."

That the CIO follows the "party line" laid down by Moscow is further evidenced in its ready acceptance of Red revolutionary strategy including "sit-downs," "slow-downs," "sabotage," clashes with the police, and the latest wrinkle—"wild-who stand by and urge the Communist to do his worst, and provide him with protection, sympathy, and defense while he commits the overt act they have not had the courage to commit themselves."

On June 25, 1941, Hon. Paul J. Kern, President of New York's Civil Service Commission, was examined by a City Council Committee investigating his official acts which, it was alleged, included preferential treatment of Communists. He admitted having contributed $2,629 to Left wing causes and acknowledged membership in the Consumers Union, Lawyers Committee on American Relations with Spain, National Lawyers Guild, New York Conference on Inalienable Rights, and Spanish Refugee Relief Commission (all listed on this page), but, he protested:

"I am not a Communist nor have I ever been one. Neither am I a fellow traveler. I subscribed to the Daily Worker (Communist newspaper) in 1937 because it was then supporting the present city reform administration. I subscribed to the New Masses (Communist weekly organ) to keep an open mind. I bought Soviet (Government) bonds for myself and my wife because they paid 7% interest. United States (Government) bonds paid only 3½%."

While it is probably true that the Hon. Mr. Kern was never a card-carrying Communist it is nevertheless interesting to review the sworn testimony of George Berthelon, former Communist, before a special committee of the California Legislature. He declared:

"We (the Communists) had a rule that whenever anyone asked us if we were members, we were automatically expelled. Of course, after we had replied 'no,' we were immediately reinstated. All this was automatic."

Lovett is now "Acting Governor" of the Virgin Islands. Its position best expressed by Paul Blanchard, former field secretary, who said: "I am sometimes ashamed that I am an American. Yes, I am Red and pretty Red . . . the things that happened in Russia are bound to happen in America. The working class must have more power. "We pledge to work for the stoppage of all munitions production in American factories; we shall especially strive to extend our anti-war forces into the key factories. #### American Youth Congress

July 7, 1941, an official Communist organ reports: "Five and a half million organized young Americans were represented at the (American Youth) Congress by 1,100 official delegates, according to the credentials committee report, of the more than 800 local and national organizations who sent delegates. . . Nathaniel Mill, reporting at the conscription panel, in which a number of draftees in uniform participated, said 'The conscripts want us to give them a voice. Every local organization ought to have a draftee welfare committee to adopt an Army Camp nearby and become their champions.'" the first preliminary step in its creation was taken in Chicago in 1919 at the first convention of the Communist Party. The program adopted declared:

Of its 34 national officers, 17 are known Communists and 5 are "fellow-travelers" who follow the Communist line.

"The Communist Party propagandizes industrial unionism and industrial union organizations, emphasizing their revolutionary implications. Industrial unionism is not simply a means for the every day struggle against capitalism; its ultimate purpose is revolutionary, implying the necessity of ending the capitalist parliamentary state. Industrial unionism is a factor in the final mass action for the conquest of power, as it will constitute the basis for the industrial administration of the Communist Commonwealth."

This was the real beginning of a Moscow directed Communist campaign to "bore-from-within" the A. F. of L.; to reorganize American labor on an industrial union basis; to overthrow the Government thus "ending the capitalist parliamentary state," and to set up a "Communist Commonwealth"—or as it is currently phrased—a Soviet America.

John L. Lewis, who still runs the CIO, is well aware of all this. In 1924, when he was against "industrial unionism" and its revolutionary implications, he submitted to the United States Senate a report which said:

"The movement is aimed not only at the labor unions but at the entire industrial, social and political structure of the country, and with the single aim of eventually establishing a Soviet dictatorship in the United States . . ."

John Lewis was right, for just two years before, Government agents had raided an illegal Communist convention being held on the sand dunes of Lake Michigan near Benton Harbor and had seized documents which proved this conspiracy.

One significant item now in the Federal archives in Washington, is a copy of a report sent to Moscow by one of the Communist secret agents in America. He had been directed to make a survey of the possibilities of "boring-from-within" the A. F. of L. to establish industrial unionism. In 1921 he reported to his Moscow masters:

"The prospects of our influencing the labor movement are mainly in the International Ladies Garment Workers; Amalgamated Clothing Workers; Hat, Cap and Millinery Workers. There is a splendid chance for our propaganda among the Textile Workers, also the United Mine Workers. There are great possibilities for our work among the automobile workers . . ."

In December, 1931, the Central Council of the Red Internationale of Labor Unions, meeting in Moscow, decided:

"We must apply different forms . . . a strike while remaining in the factories, a slowing down in the tempo of work . . . bad work (sabotage) for low wages . . . break through police barriers to establish by direct action the control over the employment and dismissal of workers, to secure changes in the internal regulations of the factory."

Another R.I.L.U. conference concluded:

"It is our task to rehabilitate the so-called "wild-cat" or unofficial strikes . . ."

Congressman Martin Dies on March 26th, 1941, wired Philip Murray, President of the CIO, to inquire "whether or not the CIO is ready and willing to expel from its ranks and from positions of leadership members of the Communist Party." Murray did not answer the question.

The telegram also said in part: "Earl Browder testified that 50,000 members of the Communist Party are also members of trade unions; that two-thirds of them are affiliated with your organization and that hundreds of his members are officials of your unions."

In May, Congressman Starnes, Vice Chairman of the Dies Committee, in a speech in Congress, said: "All over the United States, wherever there is opportunity to sabotage our program of national defense the Communist Party is working under the auspices of the CIO," while a few weeks later Col. John Thomas Taylor, National Legislative Representative of the American Legion, told a Legion convention in Maine that labor "has done nothing about cleaning up Communism in CIO unions," and that "some labor groups have been guilty of treason, and nothing less than treason . . . I put the finger on Philip Murray (CIO head) . . . for permitting such things to be done," he said.

It was bad enough for the CIO to be a stooge for Communism, but Hugh Ben Inzer, former president of a UAW-CIO local, exposed the ultimate in treason and un-Americanism when, on May 29, 1941, he told the Dies Committee about a meeting between Communist, Nazi-Bund, and CIO leaders in Los Angeles to plan a coast-wide strike. In speaking of the CIO leadership, he said:

"I was very much shocked to learn they were so close to both the Communists and the German-American Bund."

"An organization," according to its Bulletin, "which seeks to abolish the profit system in order to develop a classless society based upon the obligation of mutual services"—which is a polite way of describing Communism. One of its joint-Secretaries was Winifred Chappell, who endorsed the Communist platform and candidates and later became Chairman of the faculty at a Communist College. Writing for the Epworth Herald, she said:

"Accept the draft, take the drill, go into the camps and onto the battlefields, or into the munitions factories and transportation work—but sabotage war preparations and war. Be agitators for sabotage. Down tools when the order is to make and load munitions. Spoil war materials and machinery . . . ## "FRONTS" and FELLOW-TRAVELERS

"We must," said the Red organ, THE COMMUNIST, in 1931, "set up and systematically utilize mass organizations as transmission belts to the broad masses of non-Party workers." These instructions further quoted Otto Kuusinen, more recently Stalin's stooge in Finland, as directing: "Our task is to build up mass organizations sympathizing with our aims, and able to aid us for special purposes . . . We must create a whole solar system of organizations and smaller committees around the Communist Party, working actually under the influence of our Party."

Last year a California Legislative Committee reported:

"Communist 'front' organizations are used to enlist the support of unsuspecting followers . . . The contact thus gained is used to dupe non-members into following the line laid down by the Communist Party, to subject them to a disguised poison propaganda, and to recruit as many Party members as possible."

"Today," says an official Communist pamphlet, "the Party is organizing groups of sympathizers . . . Sympathizers are those who are the Communists of tomorrow."

A U. S. Naval Intelligence report, in 1935, said:

"A major problem is not only the Communist with his philosophy of hatred, destruction, and revolt; but individuals, supposedly intelligent, occupying positions above the average in life, whose names and works, carry with them a certain prestige, and who, although themselves not subscribing to the Communist program, philosophy, and doctrines, pick certain sections of the Communist program to promote, uphold and espouse . . . These are the 'fringe revolutionists' too lacking in intestinal fortitude to go all the way with Communism, but who stand by and urge the Communist to do his worst, and provide him with protection, sympathy, and defense while he commits the overt act they have not had the courage to commit themselves."

On June 25, 1941, Hon. Paul J. Kern, President of New York's Civil Service Commission, was examined by a City Council Committee investigating his official acts which, it was alleged, included preferential treatment of Communists. He admitted having contributed $2,629 to Left wing causes and acknowledged membership in the Consumers Union, Lawyers Committee on American Relations with Spain, National Lawyers Guild, New York Conference on Inalienable Rights, and Spanish Refugee Relief Commission (all listed on this page), but, he protested:

"I am not a Communist nor have I ever been one. Neither am I a fellow traveler. I subscribed to the Daily Worker (Communist newspaper) in 1937 because it was then supporting the present city reform administration. I subscribed to the New Masses (Communist weekly organ) to keep an open mind. I bought Soviet (Government) bonds for myself and my wife because they paid 7% interest. United States (Government) bonds paid only 3 1/2%."

While it is probably true that the Hon. Mr. Kern was never a card-carrying Communist it is nevertheless interesting to review the sworn testimony of George Berthelon, former Communist, before a special committee of the California Legislature. He declared:

"We (the Communists) had a rule that whenever anyone asked us if we were members, we were automatically expelled. Of course, after we had replied 'no,' we were immediately reinstated. All this was automatic."

It is a revelation that in 1921 the Communists could select by name the very organizations that in 1935 were to be the principal factors in organizing the CIO. It follows that their "boring-from-within" must have been most successful when they could take the violently anti-Communist United Mine Workers Union and transform it into the financial backer of their current agitation and propaganda vehicle—the CIO. Communist influence in CIO leadership is likewise shown in the readiness with which the CIO followed the suggestion of Moscow's secret agent of 1921 concerning the "great possibilities for our work among the automobile workers."

That the CIO follows the "party line" laid down by Moscow is further evidenced in its ready acceptance of Red revolutionary strategy including "sit-downs," "slow-downs," "sabotage," clashes with the police, and the latest wrinkle—"wild-cat" strikes.

In December, 1931, the Central Council of the Red Internationale of Labor Unions, meeting in Moscow, decided:

"We must apply different forms . . . a strike while remaining in the factories, a slowing down in the tempo of work . . . bad work (sabotage) for low wages . . . break through police barriers to establish by direct action the control over the employment and dismissal of workers, to secure changes in the internal regulations of the factory."

Originally named "Intercollegiate Socialist Society," it carries on propaganda for "a new social order, based on production for use and not for profit." Headed for 35 years by Robert Morss Lovett, active in Communist organizations, who said, if America goes to war, "I shall take no part myself and shall do my best to defend others who take a similar stand." Lovett is now "Acting Governor" of the Virgin Islands. Its position best expressed by Paul Blanchard, former field secretary, who said: "I am sometimes ashamed that I am an American. Yes, I am Red and pretty Red . . . the things that happened in Russia are bound to happen in America. The working class must have more power. They can't get that power unless they take it from somebody else . . . We must honestly try to abolish the superstition of patriotism. I am an American only by accident of birth."

Socialist Party USA

Recognized authorities and standard works make no distinction between Socialism and Communism, insofar as ultimate ends are concerned. Socialists admit that in order to achieve their goal they would resort to bloody revolution, as a last resort. Many Communist leaders of today were trained in the ranks of the Socialist Party. Socialists and Communists cooperate in countless "United Front" activities. Communist leader Earl Browder explains: "The program of the Socialist Party and the program of the Communist Party have a common origin in the document written by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels in 1847-48, known as the Communist Manifesto. There is no difference, so far as the program is con-

Young Communist League

Its members take the following oath:
"I pledge upon joining the Young Communist League, to be a loyal fighter for the cause of the working class."

In December, 1931, the Central Council of the Red Internationale of Labor Unions, meeting in Moscow, decided:

"We must apply different forms . . . a strike while remaining in the factories, a slowing down in the tempo of work . . . bad work (sabotage) for low wages . . . break through police barriers to establish by direct action the control over the employment and dismissal of workers, to secure changes in the internal regulations of the factory."

Another R.I.L.U. conference concluded:

"It is our task to rehabilitate the so-called 'wild-cat' or unofficial strikes . . ."

Congressman Martin Dies on March 26th, 1941, wired Philip Murray, President of the CIO, to inquire "whether or not the CIO is ready and willing to expel from its ranks and from positions of leadership members of the Communist Party." Murray did not answer the question.

The telegram also said in part: "Earl Browder testified that 50,000 members of the Communist Party are also members of trade unions; that two-thirds of them are affiliated with your organization and that hundreds of his members are officials of your unions."

In May, Congressman Starnes, Vice Chairman of the Dies Committee, in a speech in Congress, said: "All over the United States, wherever there is opportunity to sabotage our program of national defense the Communist Party is working under the auspices of the CIO," while a few weeks later Col. John Thomas Taylor, National Legislative Representative of the American Legion, told a Legion convention in Maine that labor "has done nothing about cleaning up Communism in CIO unions," and that "some labor groups have been guilty of treason, and nothing less than treason . . . I put the finger on Philip Murray (CIO head) . . . for permitting such things to be done," he said.

It was bad enough for the CIO to be a stooge for Communism, but Hugh Ben Inzer, former president of a UAW-CIO local, exposed the ultimate in treason and un-Americanism when, on May 29, 1941, he told the Dies Committee about a meeting between Communist, Nazi-Bund, and CIO leaders in Los Angeles to plan a coast-wide strike. In speaking of the CIO leadership, he said:

"I was very much shocked to learn they were so close to both the Communists and the German-American Bund."

"An organization," according to its Bulletin, "which seeks to abolish the profit system in order to develop a classless society based upon the obligation of mutual services"—which is a polite way of describing Communism. One of its joint-Secretaries was Winifred Chappell, who endorsed the Communist platform and candidates and later became Chairman of the faculty at a Communist College. Writing for the Epworth Herald, she said:

"Accept the draft, take the drill, go into the camps and onto the battlefields, or into the munitions factories and transportation work—but sabotage war preparations and war. Be agitators for sabotage. Down tools when the order is to make and load munitions. Spoil war materials and machinery . . . We church folk are getting little or no teaching or training in the hard matter of turning the war situation, when it is here, into a deliberate program for a new social order."

P. S.

Lack of space prevents giving proper attention to a most dangerous type of un-American organization, which, while keeping aloof from the Communist movement, "exposes" Nazis and Fascists as a "blind," devotes its major effort to "smearing" opponents of Communism, with never a word against the Communists—outfits like THE HOUR, a weekly news service (claims a newspaper and radio audience of 30,000,000), edited by Albert E. Kahn, a writer for the Communist Party line magazine FRIDAY, and with Frederick L. Schuman, instructor at the Communist Workers School, on its board of editors.

well appointed headquarters are the German-American Bund's files and secret papers, which the F. B. I. and the Dies Committee failed to get. Here, under the direction of Herman Kilper, Hitler's newest "personal emissary," plans are being laid to make good der Fuehrer's boast:

"National Socialism alone is destined to liberate the American people from their ruling clique and give them back the means of becoming a great nation. I guarantee that at the right moment a new America will exist."

America, because that is what he considered himself. In 1933, with headquarters in Asheville, N. C., he claimed more than one million members in his Silver Legion of America; his imprint was Pelley Publishers; his bank account Skyland Press; express shipments were sent under the name Foundation Fellowship and mail under Little Visits; and his magazines were Pelley's Weekly and Liberation. Today he is located in Noblesville, Ind., and publishes the magazine Roll Call, which is sent to a mailing list of less than 10,000.

Other leading native Fascists include George Detherage of St. Albans, W. Va., who organized the American National Confederation which he calls the "official Fascist Party;" Henry D. Allen of Pasadena, Cal., head of the American White Guard, who tried to unite the Nazi and Fascist movements in America; and George Christians of Chattanooga, Tenn., who organized and headed the Christian Crusaders for Economic Liberty, the American Liberty Party, the Fifty Million Club for Economic Liberty, and the Crusader White Shirts whose first General Orders said: "March in military formation to and surround government buildings . . . Strike hard, straight and swiftly."

upon renunciation and mail under Little Visits; and his magazines were Peley's Weekly and Liberation. Today he is located in Noblesville, Ind., and publishes the magazine Roll Call, which is sent to a mailing list of less than 10,000.

Other leading native Fascists include George Detherage of St. Albans, W. Va., who organized the American National Confederation which he calls the "official Fascist Party;" Henry D. Allen of Pasadena, Cal., head of the American White Guard, who tried to unite the Nazi and Fascist movements in America; and George Christians of Chattanooga, Tenn., who organized and headed the Christian Crusaders for Economic Liberty, the American Liberty Party, the Fifty Million Club for Economic Liberty, and the Crusader White Shirts whose first General Orders said: "March in military formation to and surround government buildings . . . Strike hard, straight and swiftly."

mander in the Naval Militia. He wrote a friend: "Our great movement, if strongly centered in the National Guard units throughout the country, can hasten the day when our program will become a reality."

The Communist program for the armed forces has been laid down in a series of decisions, manifestos, directives and statements by Party leaders which, in part, declare:

"Thousands of young Party members and Young Communist Leaguers should join the National Guard, work among them, explain to them what roles the bourgeoisie makes them play in the class struggle . . . and win them over to our side."

"Communists must agitate in the bourgeois army for the arming of the proletariat . . . the Communist must advise the workers to avail themselves of the opportunity to learn to use arms, and at the proper moment, to turn their weapons against the bourgeoisie."

"As soon as they join, the workers have not only rifles and cannon but also airships and poison gas and battle-ships to fight the bosses. Poison gases are destructive, to be sure, but their destructive power can be turned also against the old system."

"We must be able to reach the armed forces of the nation with revolutionary agitation and propaganda calculated to cause defections and mutiny in the ranks . . ." —"Formulating a program of economic demands and complaints . . ." —"Carry on an energetic propaganda in favor of soldiers' and sailors' Soviets, and denunciatory agitation against officers and generals . . ."

"In a more advanced period of incipient revolutionary fermentation, agitation for the democratic election of all commanders by the privates and sailors may prove very advantageous in undermining the foundations of capitalist rule . . ."

"We Communists will go into the United States Army and get arms for the proletariat to sabotage the Army and to destroy the Government of the United States . . ."

Just 17 days after the United States recognized Soviet Russia, American Communists published a document which described the overthrow of our government, with the help of disloyal soldiers and sailors. It read in part:

"Workers stop work, many of them seize arms by attacking arsenals . . . Under the leadership of the Communist Party, the workers organize Revolutionary Committees to be in command of the uprising. There are battles in the principal cities. The workers' fighting has a decisive influence with the soldiers, the sailors and the marines."

"The movement among the soldiers and marines spreads. Capitalism is losing its strongest weapon, the army. Armed workers and soldiers and marines seize the principal government offices, invade the residences of the President and his cabinet members, arrest them, declare the old regime abolished, establish their own power, the power of the workers and farmers."

TS

In summarizing its findings on the Communist Party, the Dies Committee reports in part:

"It is under direct control of the Third International which has its headquarters in Moscow.

"It seeks ultimately the overthrow of the American form of government as established by the Constitution of the United States.

THE NAZIS

Hitler's Nazis are Brown Bolsheviks.

And he has a horde of spies, saboteurs, Gestapo agents, brown-shirted storm troopers and German army reservists and veterans in America who constitute as dangerous a Fifth Column as any which contributed to the downfall of Europe's conquered countries.

His consuls and their recently over-busy staffs may be on their way back to the Fatherland; his German Library of Information may be closed; his Trans-Ocean News Service may be suspended; his Fellowship

THE FASCISTS

Fascists in America, unlike the Communists and Nazis, are not primarily concerned with the task of imposing their philosophy of government on this country, but in securing aid, among their compatriots here, in advancing the cause of their respective peoples abroad.

But the organized Italian Fascists, Ukrainian Fascists and White Russian Fascists are a real menace, nevertheless, because of the active support and cooperation they give the Nazi Bund.
